For the second quarter of 2018, total gross bookings increased 13% (including 2 percentage points of positive foreign exchange impact), driven primarily by growth in Brand Expedia, HomeAway, Hotels.com and Expedia Partner Solutions. Domestic gross bookings increased 10% and international gross bookings increased 19% (including 5 percentage points of positive foreign exchange impact). International gross bookings totaled $9.7 billion and accounted for 37% of worldwide bookings, compared with 36% in the second quarter of 2017.

For the second quarter of 2018, revenue increased 11% (including 3 percentage points of positive foreign exchange impact), driven primarily by growth in Brand Expedia, Hotels.com, HomeAway and Expedia Partner Solutions. Domestic revenue increased 12% and international revenue increased 11% (including 6 percentage points of positive foreign exchange impact). International revenue equaled $1.2 billion, representing 43% of worldwide revenue, compared to 44% in the second quarter of 2017. Total revenue excluding trivago was $2.7 billion, an increase of 14% compared to the second quarter of 2017.

Product & Services Detail

As a percentage of total worldwide revenue in the second quarter of 2018, lodging accounted for 69%, advertising and media accounted for 10%, air accounted for 8% and other revenue accounted for the remaining 13%.

Lodging revenue, which includes hotel and HomeAway revenue, increased 14% in the second quarter of 2018 driven by growth in HomeAway, Hotels.com, Expedia Partner Solutions and Brand Expedia. Room nights stayed increased 12% while revenue per room night increased 2% in the second quarter of 2018.

Air revenue increased 10% in the second quarter of 2018 on a 6% increase in air tickets sold as well as a 4% increase in revenue per ticket. Air revenue growth was primarily driven by benefits from the reclassification of distribution fees from contra-revenue to cost of revenue and the reclassification of certain customer refunds from air revenue to insurance.

Advertising and media revenue decreased 9% in the second quarter of 2018 due to a decline in local currency revenue at trivago, partly offset by a positive impact from foreign exchange and continued growth at Expedia Group Media Solutions. Other revenue increased 16% in the second quarter of 2018 primarily reflecting growth in the travel insurance product.

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) Expenses

Total GAAP costs and expenses	$ 2,635	$ 2,404	10%	91.5%	93.0%	(148)

GAAP Cost of Revenue

- For the second quarter of 2018, total GAAP cost of revenue increased 13%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, due to $29 million more in customer operations expenses, including higher headcount at Egencia and HomeAway, as well as $29 million more in data center, cloud and other costs. Cloud expense in GAAP cost of revenue was $22 million during the second quarter of 2018, compared to $12 million in the second quarter of 2017.

GAAP Selling and Marketing

- For the second quarter of 2018, total GAAP selling and marketing expenses increased 7%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, due to a $57 million increase in direct costs, including online and offline marketing expenses. Hotels.com, Expedia Partner Solutions and HomeAway accounted for the majority of the direct cost increase. For the second quarter of 2018, indirect costs increased $41 million, primarily driven by growth in personnel in the lodging supply organization.

GAAP Technology and Content

- For the second quarter of 2018, total GAAP technology and content expense increased 17%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, due to increased personnel and overhead of $30 million from investments in our ecommerce platform and growth at HomeAway, as well as inorganic impacts from acquisitions. In addition, depreciation and amortization of technology assets increased $15 million. Cloud expense in GAAP technology and content expense was $12 million during the second quarter of 2018, compared to $9 million in the second quarter of 2017.

GAAP General and Administrative

- For the second quarter of 2018, total GAAP general and administrative expense increased 10%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, primarily due to higher personnel and overhead costs of $16 million, resulting from increased headcount at corporate as well as inorganic impacts from acquisitions.

Adjusted Cost of Revenue

- For the second quarter of 2018, total adjusted cost of revenue increased 14%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, primarily due to an increase in customer operations expenses, including higher headcount expenses at Egencia and HomeAway, as well as an increase in cloud expense.

Adjusted Selling and Marketing

- For the second quarter of 2018, total adjusted selling and marketing expense increased 7%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, due to a $57 million increase in direct costs, including online and offline marketing expenses, and a $37 million increase in indirect costs. As a percentage of total adjusted selling and marketing, indirect costs represented 17% in the second quarter of 2018, up from 15% in the second quarter of 2017.
- Adjusted selling and marketing expense excluding trivago increased 10% in the second quarter of 2018. Hotels.com, Expedia Partner Solutions and HomeAway accounted for the majority of the direct cost increase. The growth in indirect costs was primarily driven by growth in personnel due to increased headcount in the lodging supply organization.

Adjusted Technology and Content

- For the second quarter of 2018, total adjusted technology and content expense increased 19%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, primarily due to investments in our ecommerce platform and growth at HomeAway, as well as inorganic impacts from acquisitions.

Adjusted General and Administrative

- For the second quarter of 2018, total adjusted general and administrative expense increased 14%, compared to the second quarter of 2017. Adjusted general and administrative expense excluding trivago increased 13%, compared to the second quarter of 2017, primarily due to increased headcount at corporate as well as inorganic impacts from acquisitions.

Depreciation Expense

Depreciation expense increased $17 million or 12% to $169 million in the second quarter of 2018, primarily due to increased expenses related to previously capitalized software development costs for completed technology projects that have been placed into service, partly offset by a decrease in expenses related to capitalized data center hardware.

Stock-Based Compensation Expense

Stock-based compensation expense was flat year-over-year at $50 million in the second quarter of 2018.

⁽¹⁾ During the first quarter of 2018, we updated our allocations methodology and recast the historical Adjusted EBITDA by segment information presented to be on a comparable basis.

⁽²⁾ Upon completion of its initial public offering on December 16, 2016, trivago became a separately listed company on the Nasdaq Global Select Market and, therefore, is subject to its own reporting and filing requirements which could result in possible differences that are not expected to be material to Expedia Group.

⁽³⁾ Expedia Group does not calculate or report net income by segment.

* Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP measure. See pages 14-19 herein for a description and reconciliation to the corresponding GAAP measure.

Note: Some numbers may not add due to rounding.

GAAP net income attributable to Expedia Group was $1 million in the second quarter of 2018, a decrease of 98% compared to the second quarter of 2017. Adjusted EBITDA was $463 million in the second quarter of 2018, an increase of 18% compared to the second quarter of 2017. Adjusted EBITDA excluding trivago was $483 million, an increase of 24% compared to the second quarter of 2017.

Amortization of Intangible Assets

Consolidated amortization of intangible assets increased $6 million to $72 million in the second quarter of 2018, compared to the second quarter of 2017, primarily related to recent business acquisitions.

Impairment of Goodwill

Impairment of goodwill was $61 million in the second quarter of 2018, and we did not incur any impairment of goodwill in the second quarter of 2017.

Interest and Other

Consolidated interest income increased $6 million in the second quarter of 2018, compared to the second quarter of 2017, primarily due to higher invested balances and to a lesser extent higher rates of return. Consolidated interest expense increased $8 million in the second quarter of 2018, compared to the second quarter of 2017, due to the issuance of the $1 billion of senior unsecured notes in September 2017.

Consolidated other, net was a loss of $90 million in the second quarter of 2018, compared to a loss of $13 million in the second quarter of 2017. The loss in the second quarter of 2018 was primarily related to a loss on a minority equity investment, while the loss in the second quarter of 2017 was related to foreign exchange as well as a loss on a minority equity investment. Expedia Group's revenue hedging program is designed primarily to offset the book-to-stay impact on merchant hotel revenue. Expedia Group includes that portion of any realized gains or losses from the revenue hedging program that are included in other, net that relate to revenue recognized in the period in the calculation of Adjusted EBITDA.

Income Taxes

The GAAP effective tax rate was 34% for the second quarter of 2018, compared to 5% for the second quarter of 2017. The change in the GAAP effective tax rate in the second quarter of 2018 compared to the second quarter of 2017 was primarily driven by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Tax Act"), the 2018 goodwill impairment, a decrease in excess tax benefits for stock compensation as well as other discrete tax items. The effective tax rate on pretax adjusted net income ("ANI") was 16% for the second quarter of 2018, compared to 27% for the second quarter of 2017. The decrease in the ANI effective tax rate for the second quarter of 2018 compared to the second quarter of 2017 was primarily driven by the Tax Act.

Balance Sheet, Cash Flows and Capitalization

Cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash and short-term investments totaled $4.9 billion at June 30, 2018. For the six months ended June 30, 2018, consolidated net cash provided by operating activities was $2.5 billion and consolidated free cash flow totaled $2.1 billion. Both measures include $1.9 billion from net changes in operating assets and liabilities, primarily driven by an increase in deferred merchant bookings. For the six months ended June 30, 2018, consolidated free cash flow increased $48 million compared to the prior year period.

Long-term investments and other assets includes an investment in Despegar.com, Corp. ("Despegar"), which is recorded at a fair value of $201 million as of June 30, 2018, and $338 million of a $350 million investment made in Traveloka Holding Limited in July 2017, accounted for as a cost method investment, with a small portion allocated to intangible assets. As of January 1, 2018, we adopted the new guidance related to accounting for minority equity investments and financial liabilities under the fair value option, and minority equity investments with readily determinable fair values, such as our investment in Despegar, must be carried at fair value with changes in fair value recorded through net income. Previously, this investment was designated as available for sale and recorded at fair value with changes in fair value reflected through other comprehensive income (loss).

Current maturities of long-term debt includes $500 million in 7.456% senior notes due in August 2018. Long-term debt, net of applicable discounts and debt issuance costs, totaled $3.7 billion at June 30, 2018 consisting of $990 million in 3.8% senior notes due 2028; $742 million in 5.0% senior notes due 2026; $496 million in 4.5% senior notes due 2024; $755 million (€650 million) in 2.5% senior notes due 2022; and $748 million in 5.95% senior notes due 2020. In addition, as of June 30, 2018, Expedia Group had a $2 billion unsecured revolving credit facility which was essentially untapped.

At June 30, 2018, Expedia Group had stock-based awards outstanding representing approximately 22 million shares of Expedia Group common stock, consisting of options to purchase approximately 19 million common shares with a $99.09 weighted average exercise price and weighted average remaining life of 4.7 years, and approximately 3 million restricted stock units ("RSUs").

During the first six months of 2018, Expedia Group repurchased 3.7 million shares of Expedia Group common stock for an aggregate purchase price of $409 million excluding transaction costs (an average of $110.61 per share). As of June 30, 2018, there were approximately 1.2 million shares and 15.0 million shares remaining under the February 2015 and April 2018 repurchase authorizations, respectively. Subsequent to the end of the second quarter of 2018, we repurchased an additional 0.3 million shares for a total cost of $42 million excluding transaction costs (an average of $124.95 per share).

On June 14, 2018, Expedia Group paid a quarterly dividend of $45 million ($0.30 per common share). In addition, on July 23, 2018, the Executive Committee of Expedia Group's Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of $0.32 per share of outstanding common stock to be paid to stockholders of record as of the close of business on August 23, 2018, with a payment date of September 13, 2018. Based on current shares outstanding, the total payment for this quarterly dividend is estimated to be approximately $48 million. Future declaration of dividends and the establishment of future record and payment dates are subject to the final determination of Expedia Group's Board of Directors.

Notes:

- The metrics above include Orbitz Worldwide following the acquisition on September 17, 2015 and HomeAway following the acquisition on December 15, 2015.
- HomeAway gross bookings and room nights operating metrics include on-platform and reported transactions from all HomeAway brands, with the exception of BedandBreakfast.com and TopRural (which, if included, would collectively add less than an estimated 2% to each of gross bookings and room nights). Gross bookings and room nights for Stayz, Bookabach and Travelmob (which collectively represent less than 10% of total transactions) represent our best estimates, including gross bookings and room nights for Stayz and Bookabach that remain off-platform while we transition those brands to HomeAway platform brands, which started in the second quarter of 2018.
- Advertising & Media Revenue includes 3rd party revenue from trivago. All trivago revenue is classified as international.
- During the first quarter of 2018, we updated our allocations methodology and recast the historical domestic and international revenue and Adjusted EBITDA by segment information presented to be on a comparable basis.
- Some numbers may not add due to rounding. All percentages above and throughout this release are calculated on precise, unrounded numbers.

Notes & Definitions:

Gross Bookings: Gross bookings generally represent the total retail value of transactions booked, recorded at the time of booking reflecting the total price due for travel by travelers, including taxes, fees and other charges, adjusted for cancellations and refunds.

Core OTA: The Core Online Travel Agencies ("Core OTA") segment provides a full range of travel and advertising services to our worldwide customers through a variety of brands including: Brand Expedia, Hotels.com, Expedia Partner Solutions, Orbitz, Travelocity, Wotif, lastminute.com.au, ebookers, CheapTickets, Hotwire, Classic Vacations, Expedia Group Media Solutions, CarRentals.com, Expedia Local Expert, Expedia CruiseShipCenters, SilverRail and ALICE.

trivago: The trivago segment generates advertising revenue primarily from sending referrals to online travel companies and travel service providers from its localized hotel metasearch websites.

HomeAway: The HomeAway segment provides a range of travel services for the vacation rental industry through a global portfolio of brands including: HomeAway, VRBO, VacationRentals.com and BedandBreakfast.com, among others.

Egencia: The Egencia segment, including Traveldoo, provides managed travel services to corporate customers worldwide.

Corporate: Includes unallocated corporate expenses.

Lodging metrics: Reported on a stayed basis and includes both merchant and agency model hotel stays, as well as alternative accommodations primarily made available through HomeAway.

Room Nights: Room nights represent stayed hotel room nights for our Core OTA and Egencia reportable segments and property nights for our HomeAway reportable segment. Hotel room nights are reported on a stayed basis and include both merchant and agency hotel stays. Property nights are reported upon the first day of stay and check-in to a property and represent the total number of nights for which a property is rented.

Worldwide Air metrics: Reported on a booked basis and includes both merchant and agency air bookings.

Definitions of Non-GAAP Measures

Expedia Group reports Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted Net Income (Loss), Adjusted EPS, Free Cash Flow and Adjusted Expenses (non-GAAP cost of revenue, non-GAAP selling and marketing, non-GAAP technology and content and non-GAAP general and administrative), all of which are supplemental measures to GAAP and are defined by the SEC as non-GAAP financial measures. These measures are among the primary metrics by which management evaluates the performance of the business and on which internal budgets are based. Management believes that investors should have access to the same set of tools that management uses to analyze our results. These non-GAAP measures should be considered in addition to results prepared in accordance with GAAP, but should not be considered a substitute for or superior to GAAP. Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted Net Income (Loss) and Adjusted EPS have certain limitations in that they do not take into account the impact of certain expenses to our consolidated statements of operations. We endeavor to compensate for the limitation of the non-GAAP measures presented by also providing the most directly comparable GAAP measures and descriptions of the reconciling items and adjustments to derive the non-GAAP measures. Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted Net Income (Loss) and Adjusted EPS also exclude certain items related to transactional tax matters, which may ultimately be settled in cash. We urge investors to review the detailed disclosure regarding these matters in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Legal Proceedings sections, as well as the notes to the financial statements, included in the Company's annual and quarterly reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The non-GAAP financial measures used by the Company may be calculated differently from, and therefore may not be comparable to, similarly titled measures used by other companies. The definition of Adjusted Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization was revised in the fourth quarter of 2012 and in the first quarter of 2016 and the definition for Adjusted Net Income (Loss) was revised in the fourth quarters of 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2017. The definition of Adjusted Expenses was revised in the first quarter of 2014 and in the second quarter 2015.

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income (loss) attributable to Expedia Group adjusted for:

- (1) net income (loss) attributable to non-controlling interests;
- (2) provision for income taxes;
- (3) total other expenses, net;
- (4) stock-based compensation expense, including compensation expense related to certain subsidiary equity plans;

- (5) acquisition-related impacts, including
 - (i) amortization of intangible assets and goodwill and intangible asset impairment,
 - (ii) gains (losses) recognized on changes in the value of contingent consideration arrangements; and
 - (iii) upfront consideration paid to settle employee compensation plans of the acquiree;
- (6) certain other items, including restructuring;
- (7) items included in legal reserves, occupancy tax and other, which includes reserves for potential settlement of issues related to transactional taxes (e.g. hotel and excise taxes), related to court decisions and final settlements, and charges incurred, if any, for monies that may be required to be paid in advance of litigation in certain transactional tax proceedings;
- (8) that portion of gains (losses) on revenue hedging activities that are included in other, net that relate to revenue recognized in the period; and
- (9) depreciation.

The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, or because the amount and timing of these items is unpredictable, not driven by core operating results and renders comparisons with prior periods and competitors less meaningful. We believe Adjusted EBITDA is a useful measure for analysts and investors to evaluate our future on-going performance as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison of our performance and projected cash earnings with our historical results from prior periods and to the results of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments. In addition, we believe that by excluding certain items, such as stock-based compensation and acquisition-related impacts, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business and allows investors to gain an understanding of the factors and trends affecting the ongoing cash earnings capabilities of our business, from which capital investments are made and debt is serviced.

Adjusted Net Income (Loss) generally captures all items on the statements of operations that occur in normal course operations and have been, or ultimately will be, settled in cash and is defined as net income (loss) attributable to Expedia Group plus the following items, net of tax (which excludes the impact of significant changes resulting from tax legislation such as the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act):

- (1) stock-based compensation expense, including compensation expense related to equity plans of certain subsidiaries and equity-method investments;
- (2) acquisition-related impacts, including
 - (i) amortization of intangible assets, including as part of equity-method investments, and goodwill and intangible asset impairment;
 - (ii) gains (losses) recognized on changes in the value of contingent consideration arrangements;
 - (iii) upfront consideration paid to settle employee compensation plans of the acquiree; and
 - (iv) gains (losses) recognized on non-controlling investment basis adjustments when we acquire or lose controlling interests;
- (3) currency gains or losses on U.S. dollar denominated cash;
- (4) Since adoption of new accounting guidance in the first quarter of 2018, the changes in fair value of equity investments (other than those accounted for under the equity method and those that are consolidated);
- (5) certain other items, including restructuring charges;
- (6) items included in Legal reserves, occupancy tax and other, which includes reserves for potential settlement of issues related to transactional taxes (e.g., hotel occupancy and excise taxes), related court decisions and final settlements, and charges incurred, if any, for monies that may be required to be paid in advance of litigation in certain transactional tax proceedings, including as part of equity method investments;
- (7) discontinued operations;
- (8) the non-controlling interest impact of the aforementioned adjustment items; and
- (9) unrealized gains (losses) on revenue hedging activities that are included in other, net.

We believe Adjusted Net Income (Loss) is useful to investors because it represents Expedia Group's combined results, taking into account depreciation, which management believes is an ongoing cost of doing business, but excluding the impact of certain expenses and items not directly tied to the core operations of our businesses.

Adjusted EPS is defined as Adjusted Net Income (Loss) divided by adjusted weighted average shares outstanding, which include dilution from options per the treasury stock method and include all shares relating to RSUs in shares outstanding for Adjusted EPS. This differs from the GAAP method for including RSUs, which treats them on a treasury method basis. Shares outstanding for Adjusted EPS purposes are therefore higher than shares outstanding for GAAP EPS purposes. We believe Adjusted EPS is useful to investors because it represents, on a per share basis, Expedia Group's consolidated results, taking into account depreciation, which we believe is an ongoing cost of doing business, as well as other items which are not allocated to the operating businesses such as interest expense, taxes, foreign exchange gains or losses, and minority interest, but excluding the effects of certain expenses not directly tied to the core operations of our businesses. Adjusted Net Income (Loss) and Adjusted EPS have similar limitations as Adjusted EBITDA. In addition, Adjusted Net Income (Loss) does not include all items that affect our net income (loss) and net income (loss) per share for the period. Therefore, we think it is important to evaluate these measures along with our consolidated statements of operations.

Free Cash Flow is defined as net cash flow provided by operating activities less capital expenditures. Management believes Free Cash Flow is useful to investors because it represents the operating cash flow that our operating businesses generate, less capital expenditures but before taking into account other cash movements that are not directly tied to the core operations of our businesses, such as financing activities, foreign exchange or certain investing activities. We added additional detail for the capital expenditures associated with building our new headquarters facility in Seattle, Washington. We believe separating out capital expenditures for this discrete project is important to provide additional transparency to investors related to operating versus project-related capital expenditures. Free Cash Flow has certain limitations in that it does not represent the total increase or decrease in the cash balance for the period, nor does it represent the residual cash flow for discretionary expenditures. Therefore, it is important to evaluate Free Cash Flow along with the consolidated statements of cash flows.

Adjusted Expenses (cost of revenue, selling and marketing, technology and content and general and administrative expenses) exclude stock-based compensation related to expenses for stock options, restricted stock units and other equity compensation under applicable stock-based compensation accounting standards as well as depreciation expense. Expedia Group excludes stock-based compensation and depreciation expenses from these measures primarily because they are non-cash expenses that we do not believe are necessarily reflective of our ongoing cash operating expenses and cash operating income. Moreover, because of varying available valuation methodologies, subjective assumptions and the variety of award types that companies can use when adopting applicable stock-based compensation accounting standards, management believes that providing non-GAAP financial measures that exclude stock-based compensation allows investors to make meaningful comparisons between our recurring core business operating results and those of other companies, as well as providing management with an important tool for financial operational decision making and for evaluating our own recurring core business operating results over different periods of time. Exclusion of depreciation expense also allows the year-over-year comparison of expenses on a basis that is consistent with the year-over-year comparison of Adjusted EBITDA. There are certain limitations in using financial measures that do not take into account stock-based compensation and depreciation expense, including the fact that stock-based compensation is a recurring expense and a valued part of employees' compensation and depreciation expense is also a recurring expense and is a direct result of previous capital investment decisions made by management. Therefore it is important to evaluate both our GAAP and non-GAAP measures. See the Notes to the Consolidated Statements of Operations for stock-based compensation and depreciation expense by line item.

Expedia Group, Inc. (excluding trivago) In order to provide increased transparency on the transaction-based component of the business, Expedia Group is reporting results both in total and excluding trivago.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This release contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are not guarantees of future performance. These forward-looking statements are based on management's expectations as of July 26, 2018 and assumptions which are inherently subject to uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. The use of words such as "intend" and "expect," among others, generally identify forward-looking statements. However, these words are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. In addition, any statements that refer to expectations, projections or other characterizations of future events or circumstances are forward-looking statements and may include statements relating to future revenues, expenses, margins, profitability, net income (loss), earnings per share and other measures of results of operations and the prospects for future growth of Expedia Group's business.

Actual results and the timing and outcome of events may differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons, including, among others:

- an increasingly competitive global environment;
- our failure to invest in evolving channels, offer new consumer choices, adapt to competitive or consumer preference developments, or modify our current business models and practices or adopt new business models or practices in order to compete in a dynamic industry;
- changes in search engine algorithms and dynamics or other traffic-generating arrangements;
- our failure to maintain and expand our relationships and contractual agreements with travel suppliers or travel distribution partners;
- declines or disruptions in the travel industry;
- our failure to maintain and expand our brand awareness or increased costs to do so;
- our failure to invest in and adapt to technological developments and industry trends;
- risks related to our acquisitions, investments or significant commercial arrangements;
- risks related to regulatory developments that affect the vacation rental industry or HomeAway's continued transition to a primarily transaction-based business;
- risks relating to our operations in international markets;
- our failure to comply with current laws, rules and regulations, or changes to such laws, rules and regulations;
- adverse application of existing tax laws, rules or regulations, or how these laws, rules or regulations are subject to interpretation by taxing authorities;
- changes to the taxation of international business activities, the adoption of other corporate tax reform policies, or changes in tax legislation or policies;
- adverse outcomes in legal proceedings to which we are a party;
- interruption, security breaches and lack of redundancy in our information systems;
- our failure to comply with governmental regulation and other legal obligations related to our processing, storage, use, disclosure and protection of personal information, payment card information and other consumer data;
- our failure to comply with international privacy regulations;
- risks related to payments and fraud;
- fluctuations in foreign exchange rates;
- volatility in our stock price;
- liquidity constraints or our inability to access the capital markets when necessary or desirable;
- our failure to retain or motivate key personnel or hire, retain and motivate qualified personnel, including senior management;
- changes in control of the Company;

- management and director conflicts of interest;
- risks related to actions taken by our business partners and third party service providers, including failure to comply with our requirements or standards or the requirements or standards of governmental authorities, or any cessation of their operations;
- risks related to the failure of counterparties to perform on financial obligations;
- risks related to our long-term indebtedness, including our failure to effectively operate our businesses due to restrictive covenants in the agreements governing our indebtedness;
- our failure to protect our intellectual property and proprietary information from copying or use by others, including potential competitors;

as well as other risks detailed in our public filings with the SEC, including our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 and our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2018. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking or other statements in this release, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
